

RFID PIT TAG TECHNOLOGY AND MONITORING STATIONS

Directed to:

Students, technicians and researchers interested in potential applications of PIT tags and readers, such as monitoring of aquatic biota migration, river restoration and sediment transport.

Dates: 2 – 3rd October, 2014

Place: Salón de Grados (building 3P, room 016), School of Agronomical and Forestry studies –ETSIAMN –, Campus de Vera, Valencia. Univ. Politécnica de Valencia.

Detailed Info & Online Inscription:
Open in September, Until 1st Oct.,

At: www.cfp.upv.es
(search for course name)

The University –UPV – will deliver official electronic certificates.

1 st Day	October 2nd		2 nd Day	October 3rd
9:00 - 9:30	F. Martínez-Capel, UPV, Valencia	Introduction & Presentation	9:30 - 13:30	Warren Leach, Oregon RFID	Antenna Workshop (outdoors)
9:30- 11:30	Warren Leach, Oregon RFID	RFID for Fish and Wildlife tracking-I
11:30 - 12:00, Coffee break
12:00 - 13:00	Warren Leach, Oregon RFID	RFID for Fish and Wildlife tracking-II
Break
13:15- 14:15	Marc Ordeix, CERM (Barcelona)	Case studies in Spanish rivers
14:15-16:00, Lunch
16:00 - 19:00	Warren Leach, Oregon RFID	Building a PIT tag Monitoring Station

Fees:
Member CIREF & Unemployed, Student, freelance worker or member of official professional association.	40 €
Member CIREF (others)	55 €
Non Member & Unemployed, Student, freelance worker or member of official professional association.	60 €
Non Member CIREF (others)	70 €

<http://www.oregonrfid.com/>

Organizers: UPV, Oregon RFID, CIREF

